Dedication

George B. Goddard

We the class of 1968 are honored to dedicate this the fiftieth edition of STOSAG to such an outstanding person as GEORGE B. GODDARD.

Dr. Goddard received his B.S. from the University of Massachusetts in 1954 majoring in floriculture. He continued his education at the University receiving his M.S. in 1958 with a major horticulture and P.H.D. in 1963 with a major in botany. Dr. Goddard was an instructor at Virginia Polytech. in 1954, before joining the staff here and at the University in September 1955. Since arriving here he has served on many committees, and at present is the advisor to Stosag and the University Horticultural Society. Dr. Goddard also serves on the S.U.G. Board, the University of Massachusetts Faculty Senate on Student Affairs and the Stockbridge Advisory Committee. Along with all of these activities he teaches at Stockbridge, carries on many projects and still willingly finds time to help any student.

TEAM MEMBERS

Thomas Cataldo, Ronald Clough, Ronald Cooper, Jeff Ferguson, Ken Lever, Stephen Luther, William Pratt, Douglas Proctor, David Sears, Craig Schofield. Team Captain, Ronald Cough, Coach Col. John C. Marchant.

Twenty-nine candidates turned out when the Stockbridge Rifle Team entered it's 10th season as a recognized sports team at Stockbridge School and its 9th season under charter from the National Rifle Association as a College Club.

With limited range space and practice time it was necessary to reduce the squad early in the season so that team members can have a minimum of two hours practice each week. Five seniors and five freshmen ultimately made regular positions on the team.

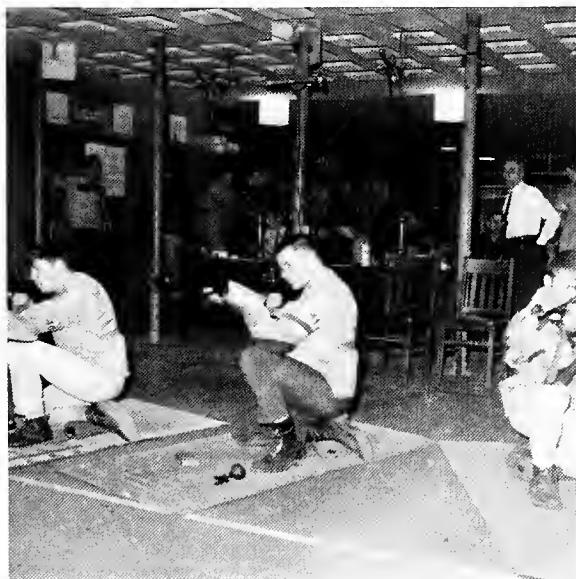

Although starting the season with a loss to the University of Massachusetts varsity, the Stockbridge riflemen thereafter went undefeated in shoulder-to-shoulder competition up to Stosag press time. Prospects looked bright for victories over Boston College Freshmen and Dartmouth College Freshmen in the final two matches of the season.

Practice is their secret to victory.

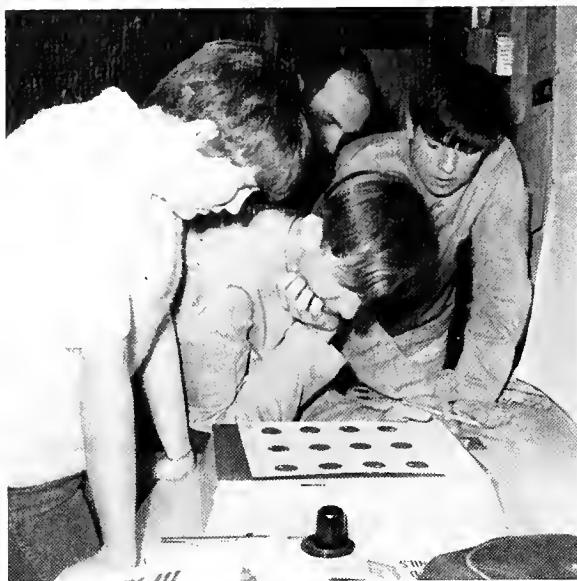

Notice their firing position.

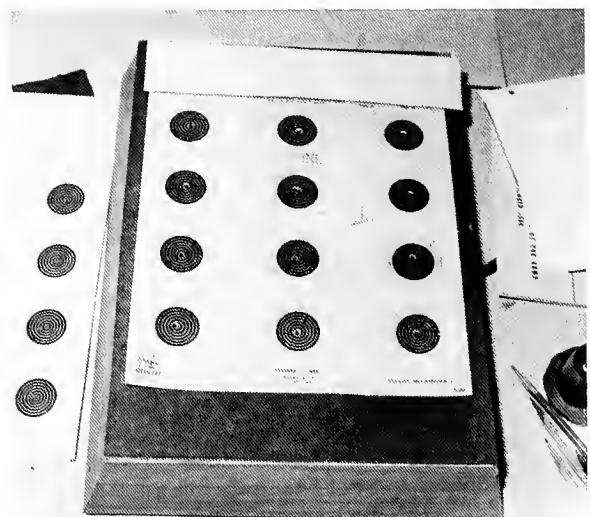

This target gives an idea of the accuracy involved in this sport.

Now to take a closer look.

Look at the placement of the marks on this target!

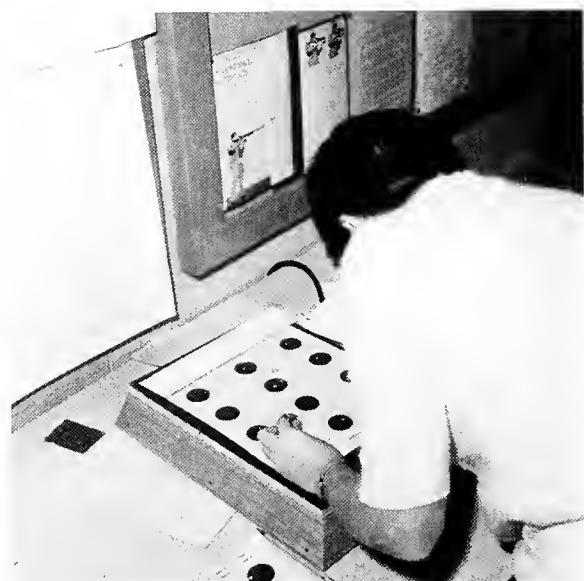

Now that the tension is off, have a good laugh.

Get that strap right.

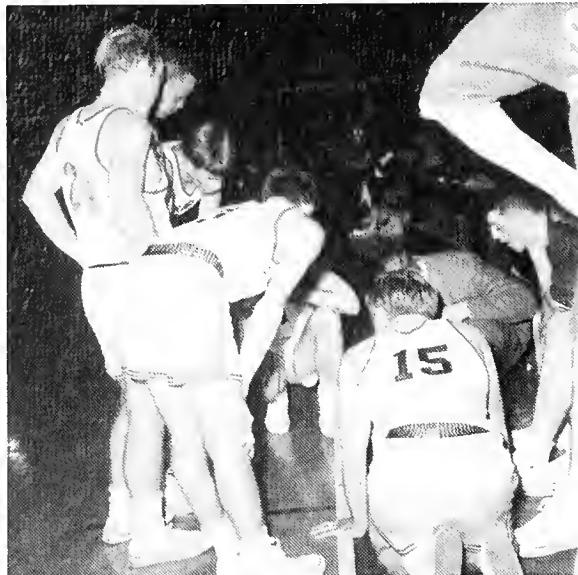

Dave takes a nap after a rough match.

1967-68 Stockbridge Basketball Team

All work and no play would make our men dull boys.

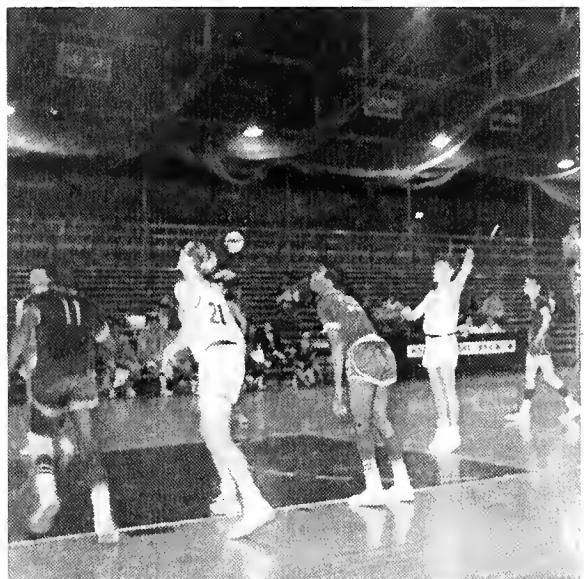

Our coach giving the team a pep talk.

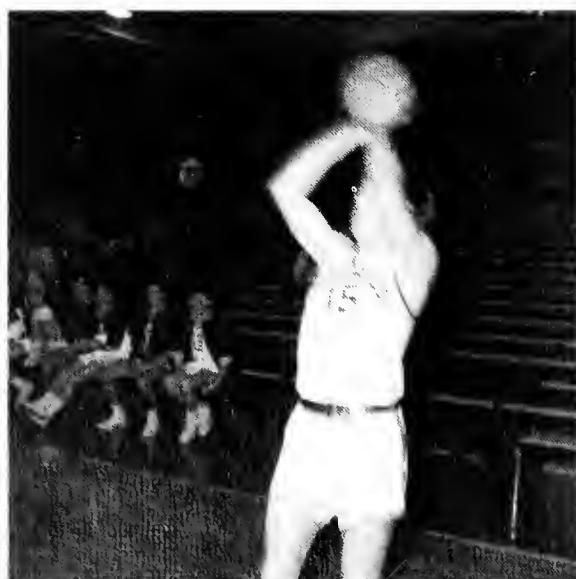

Practice makes perfect!

Looks like Murph did it again.

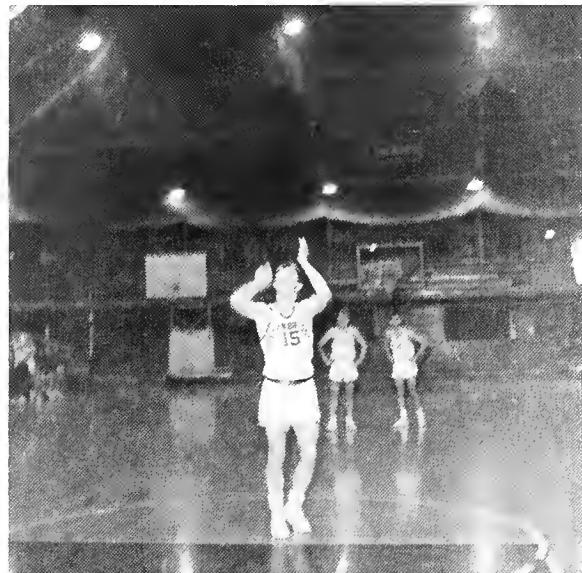

Get that rebound!

Ah! Come on guys give us a break.

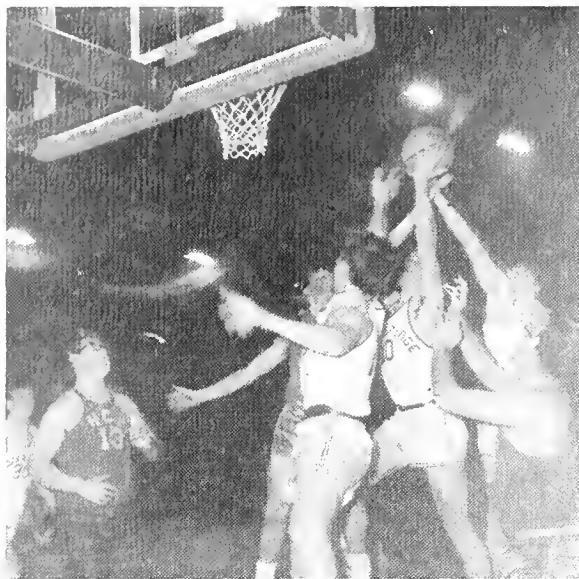

ATG must be commended on their faithful support to the team.

Steve was that added strength the team needed.

See men we really do care!

Let's not fight over the ball.

Later in the locker room?

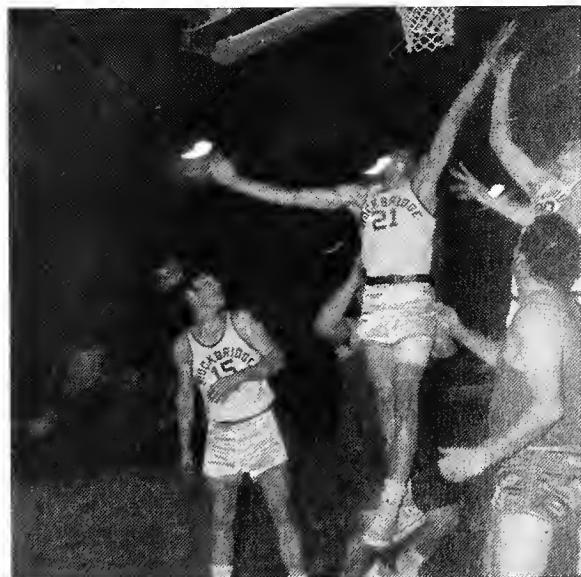

Every muscle stretched, Murph gives his all.

The suspense of the ball being in mid air. Will it go in?

Conflict of interests.

Look at the form!

Hey! Wait a minute.

Heads or Tails?

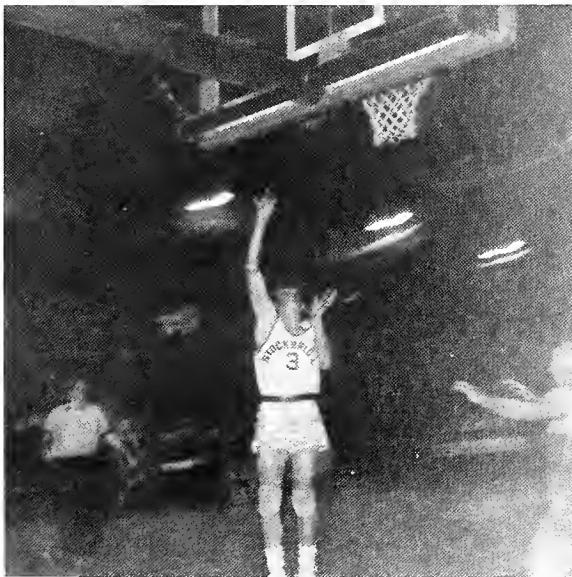

You haven't seen the last of no. 21. This is just the beginning.

Whoops!

Two more points.

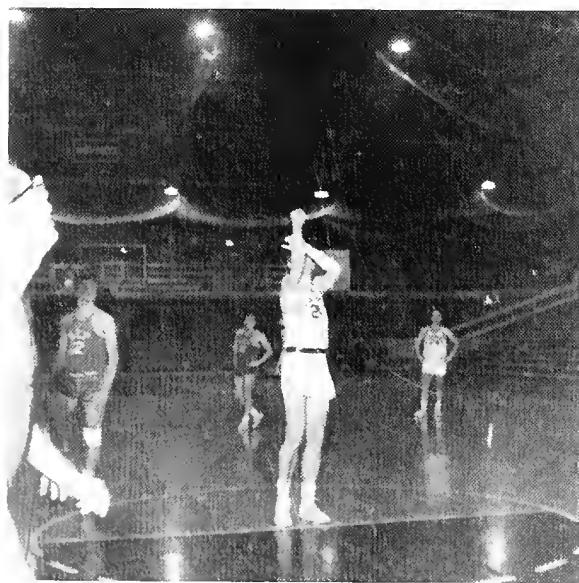

Good one!

We'll beat them to the other end.

Oh! Wrong lockerroom.

Look at the muscles.
